

Chamber faced up to 'crucial year'

Russell L. Hazen
Outgoing President

Downtown revitalization for Upland was termed one of the "most meaningful" programs of the Chamber of Commerce in 1966-67 by outgoing president R. L. "Russ" Hazen.

Hazen, in a statement to The News on the eve of the annual banquet, praised previous chamber administrations for setting the stage for progress and pointed out, that, regardless of healthy differences of opinion, the city council-chamber relations have never been better.

His statement follows:

"Looking back on year 1966-67, we can attribute much of what has been accomplished this year to the previous Chamber Administration which established a firm foundation for us to build upon.

"Most importantly, the Kruze Survey which was completed during the previous administration, established guide lines, suggested goals and presented suggestions and methods as to how these goals might be achieved. This year, we have succeeded in implementing only partially many constructive ideas contained in the survey.

"One of the most meaningful, I believe, as far as the overall effect upon the community is concerned would be the downtown revitalization program which is finally going to become a reality. The countless hours, meetings, and miles travelled by this committee established a new record in voluntary contribution by civic-minded citizens. Through their efforts, the new parking district plan was put in motion and the entire revitalization program needs but a few signatures for final approval.

"The Fireball 12 concentrated on new membership, believing that representation of a good cross-section of the business community is necessary for a strong active Chamber. Through their efforts, the membership of the Chamber was nearly tripled.

"The Community Promotion Committee was instrumental in procuring new up-to-date maps of Upland, and created a beautiful color brochure. These will be of inestimable value in acquainting people who are interested in Upland with our community layout, its relation to other communities in the area and its many fine cultural, educational, recreational and other related facilities.

"The Community Planning Committee worked with the city on the new license ordinances and the new sign ordinance, researching these matters thoroughly and obtaining similar ordinances from a number of other communities in order that Upland might come up with ordinances with which all segments of the community could live. Also, this committee did work with the city on many other matters of community interest including annexation. "Promotional events included Upland Day at the Angel Stadium, Upland Day at the Los Angeles County Fair, to name two.

"The Industrial Committee compiled a standard industrial survey outlining the many factors which an industry considering moving to a community would need to know.

"Also, this committee established an industrial land index, a commercial land index, and made several recommendations regarding the airport merger, Santa Fe spur lines, hot-mix plant study, etc.

"A Community Congress Steering Committee has been created and many worthwhile projects will be forthcoming from this committee in the near future.

"The Policy and By-Laws Committee completely reviewed the by-laws of the organization and up-dated them to reflect the latest operational needs of the Chamber. This committee also developed a written chamber policy which will serve as a guideline for future activities.

"Newly established this year was the policy of holding quarterly membership meetings for the purpose of informing the citizens and chamber members of its activities as well as presenting interesting programs on timely community matters including airport merger, Chino Water Basin out-fall sewer system and Norton Air Force Base expansion.

"In conclusion, most importantly, I believe regardless of difference of opinion that we have had from time to time, the City-Chamber relationship has never been better and the lines of communication are constantly being improved to the end that Chamber and City Officials working together as a team can make our fine city a better place in which to live and prosper.

"I am sure, I speak for myself, as well as the entire Board of Directors, in thanking the membership, the city officials, and all those who have worked diligently this year, and in wishing the coming administration a most successful year ahead.

Pop Warner defeated at Olivedale Park; Residents win game

The interests of property owners around Olivedale Park and Pop Warner League football clashed Monday in a City Recreation Commission meeting and the football game off second best.

Before some 50 spectators of protesting residents and football men, the commission recommended all construction of the football field be stopped and that the league, with the help of the city, find a new place to hold its games.

The recommendation will go to the City Council for final approval. It is a stipulation that Pop Warner football league be allowed to finish out the season this year.

Monday's meeting was orderly, the reverse of a meeting May 16 when residents were up in arms over the destruction of three trees in the park by Pop Warner volunteers.

Chairman George Gibson assured the residents Monday the city would replant trees in the park and that in the future would try to keep it a pleasant, quiet place on Sundays.

In other action the Parks and Recreation Commission heard a plea for financial aid to a Claremont Teen Post which serves youngsters in the Orbol-Verde tract in Western Upland.

Ben Molina, director of the program which has received aid under the economic opportunity program, said financial help from the city was needed to provide recreation for youth of the area.

The commission received a $50 check from the Upland Woman's Club at the meeting to be used in the upkeep of Memorial Park in Upland.

Teacher salaries depend on legislative action

Vern Orum, superintendent of Upland's Elementary School District, presented the board of trustees an out-of-balance preliminary budget May 25 with the comment that, "only action by the state legislature will allow us to retain the teacher pay scale as it is presented here."

The tentative budget of $2,960,000, up 12.6 per cent over last year's, includes proposals for 5.4 per cent pay raises for certified personnel and 5.5 per cent for classified. The minimum teacher salary proposed was $6,000 and the maximum $11,000.

It is $270,000 out-of-balance.

"Teachers should get every nickel we can afford, but not a nickel more," Orum said.

He also pointed out that the preliminary budget was only a working form for the administration to use in approving the final budget for hearings in June and July. Final adoption will come in August.

"The budget deficit can be met only by monies to come from Sacramento," the superintendent said. "It is in the hands of the state's legislators."

He said that any cuts in the budget must of necessity come from salaries as $274,000 of the budget is fixed charges.

A health insurance plan for all district employees was also proposed in the budget.

Under the plan, all employees who wish to participate will pay a flat fee of $100 on a ten month basis.

The proposals, Orum said, received the approval of the negotiating committees of teachers and classified personnel.

Trustees voted to send "letters of intent" to raise salaries to employees but added it will be July before assurances can be had the raises will go through.

The following resignations were accepted at the Board meeting:

Byron C. Ford, James McCullough, Neil Westlorn, Miss Johnice Patane, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Roland, and Robert H. Williams.

A one year leave of absence was denied Richard Robinson, who is a probationary teacher, not a tenure teacher.

Teachers to be employed for the 1967-1968 school year are Paul J. Brittain, Miss LaDonna F. Schein, Mrs. Bettae T. Galbraith, Mrs. Doris E. Heylman, Lawrence A. Waggoner, Mrs. Carolyn N. Claiborne, Mrs. Janet E. Kaufman, Mrs. Sarah M. Mason, and Mrs. Dolores A. Macropol.

Mrs. Julienne G. Massie will be employed as central office clerk as of May 22. Terrance W. Mayben will be hired a custodian as of May 23.

Upland night

Those planning to attend Upland Night at Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles on June 16 were urged today to bring or telephone their reservations to the Upland Chamber of Commerce, 982-8816.

Manager Tony Malone said the reservations must be sent in by June 13.

The cost is $5 per person which includes transportation to and from the game as well as the ticket.

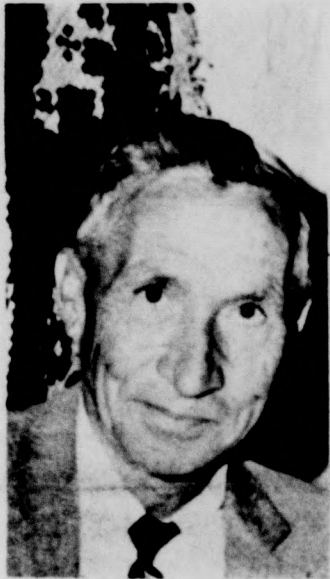

Two chartered buses are scheduled to leave the chamber office at 6 p.m. to carry city officials and every citizen that wants to go.

Mayor Christensen will throw out the first ball as the Dodgers take on the Cincinnati Reds.

Chamber banquet Monday night Sell-out expected

The Upland Chamber of Commerce banquet, with U.S. Congressman Jerry L. Pettis scheduled as the featured speaker, is expected to be a sell out Monday night at Upland Inn.

The reason? An upsurge of community interest during a crucial year of progress that has resulted in a tripled membership.

A highlight of the banquet will be announcement of the new president for 1967-68 and the report of Outgoing President Russ Hazen, president of Hazen Realty Company.

A no-host cocktail hour gets underway at the Inn at 6:30 p.m., followed by the ham, turkey and roast beef dinner at $3.50. Manager Tony Malone said Tuesday reservations will be taken right up to 7:30 p.m., when Pastor Marvin Kilgore, president of the Ministerial Association will give the invocation.

Malone will lead the Pledge of Allegiance and dinner will follow.

Upland Mayor James L. Christensen will give the Welcome and President Russell L. Hazen will give his

State of the Chamber address.

Hazen will also recognize the retiring board members and present special awards.

The surprise announcement of the new president will be made and he will give his remarks after which the incoming board of directors will be introduced.

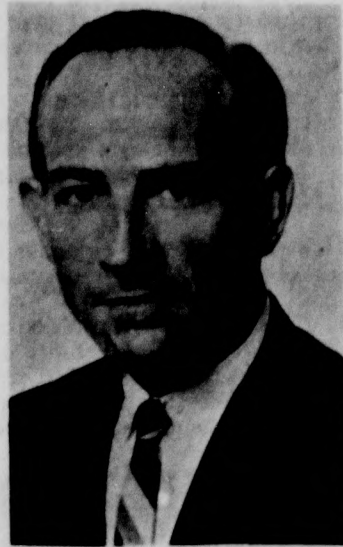

Congressman Pettis will then address the gathering on a subject of his choice.

The six new directors to take office officially Monday night are: Roger Olson, of Olson's Meats; Walter Readon, CPA, a partner with Thrall-Readon Company; Dewey Cable, of Cable Airport; Charles Althouse, an attorney; James Colgan, of Jim's Auto Service; and Jarvis Leman, CPA of the Upland Lemon Growers.

Holdover directors are Russell Hazen, Harold A. Bailin, Orville Garrison, Clinton V. Thompson, Harvey Stone, and Ted Lyman.

Outgoing directors are Lonnie Blanton, Andrew Barmakian, C. Richard Held, John Ward, Richard E. Price, and Dave Gardner.

MAIN SPEAKER -- U. S. Congressman Jerry L. Pettis.

County okays condemnation for Foothill-Grove light

The County Board of Supervisors Monday granted County Engineer M. A. Nicholas approval to use condemnation proceedings if needed for the acquisition of right-of-way at the north-east corner of Grove Ave. and Foothill Blvd. in order that traffic lights can be installed at the dangerous intersection.

Although installation of signals at the intersection is a state project, the county has to acquire the necessary right-of-way from the Kramer Bros. Nursery, which lies in county area. The city of Upland asked the state for widening of Grove and Foothill at the time of the installation of signals.

The dispute of six-months duration over the installation of stop lights at Grove Ave. and Foothill Blvd., at the boundary of Cucamonga and Upland, was summarized in a letter from County Supervisor Daniel D. Mikesell to the city of Upland May 23.

Mikesell's letter pointed up that the main point of disagreement was whether additional land at the north-east corner of the intersection could be obtained for widening of Grove Ave., which is in county territory, and which Upland requested as part of signalization project.

The corner is occupied by Kramer Bros. Nursery.

Upland officials seemed to have understood the additional right-of-way could be obtained without cost. County Highway officials, on the other hand, reported no success in negotiating for the necessary right-of-way.

The letter from Mikesell to Upland follows:

Hon. James L. Christensen, Mayor of City of Upland
Hon. Members of the City Council, City of Upland
Upland City Hall, 177 East "D" Street
Upland, California
Dear Mayor Christensen and Members of the Council:
Reference is made to your Resolution number 1976 received in this office on May 20, 1967. We appreciate very much your concern with the hazardous traffic situation at the intersection of Foothill Blvd. and Grove Avenue in the incorporated limits of Upland and unincorporated area of the County of San Bernardino.

In an attempt to properly answer your request, and to give you up-to-date information on the problem of signalization of this intersection, I have researched our entire file on this matter, and have conferred with the County Engineer, Mr. Martin Nicholas, and am now in the position to give you, I hope, my up-to-date findings on this problem.

It appears that discussion between the Traffic Engineer of the County and Mr. R. J. Lowry, District Traffic Engineer, Division of Highways, determined that the project of traffic signals at Foothill and Grove Avenue should be included in the budget consideration in the fiscal year 1967-1968.

By a letter, dated November 21, 1966, the Division of Highways transmitted a proposed design for this traffic signal, utilizing existing right-of-way for our comment, and proposed scheduling of the project in the 1967-1968 budget.

The County of San Bernardino's reply to the Division of Highways, by letter dated November 29, 1966, was that we approved the scheduling and recommended slight modifications of design in the design of the signal. However, by a letter of January 11, 1967, the Division of Highways transmitted a copy of a letter from the City of Upland recommending widening of Foothill Blvd. in conjunction with the project.

January 26, 1967, a field review was held at the site, attended by Mr. Blanchard, City of Upland; Mr. Pond, Division of Highways; and Mr. Williams, Tidwell and J. G. Galanis, Jr., County of San Bernardino. The City's proposal involved the County purchasing 44 feet of right-of-way on the east side of Grove Avenue, north of Foothill Boulevard. This property is currently being occupied by a nursery lathe house.

In discussions following the field review, we felt we could not justify the purchase of the right-of-way requested by the City and so informed the State by letter on February 1, 1967.

By a letter dated February 8, 1967, the State proposed delaying installation of the traffic signal until such time that the County would furnish the right-of-way suggested by the city. By a letter dated February 4, 1967 to the Division of Highways, the County recommended, due to the accidents at this location, that the State proceed as originally scheduled, with the installation of this signal in accord with the plan they submitted on November 21, 1966, utilizing existing right-of-way.

Since the aforementioned meetings and communications concerning this matter, I have been in conference with Mr. Nicholas, as indicated previously, and have requested him to contact the owner of the property on the north east corner of Grove and Foothill, and attempt to arrive at some satisfactory acquisition figure for the amount of property required to widen Grove Avenue. Toward that end, on April 13, 1967, our Right-of-Way Agent discussed the proposed signal project at the project site with Mr. Floyd Chambers of Kramer Nursery. Mr. Chambers advised he would discuss the matter with Mrs. Kramer and would write the County Engineer.

On May 9th, upon not hearing from the nursery, the Right of Way Agent again called Mr. Chambers, and learned Mrs. Kramer was opposed to any right of way dedication; also, Mr. Chambers was leaving for a month's vacation, and therefore, Mr. Chambers indicated that any further contact regarding this right-of-way should be made with his attorney, Mr. Davidson of Ontario.

Since that time, we have not been able to arrive at any agreement with the owner and it very well may be necessary that we go to condemnation to require the right-of-way necessary to improve the intersection as per your request. Toward that end, I have requested Mr. Nicholas to bring this matter before the Board of Supervisors on May 29th, for authority to proceed with condemnation in the event I have been unable to arrive at some agreement between the Kramer interest and this County.

It is also hopeful that when our final involvement has been completed, that the State will immediately authorize construction in accordance with your wishes, and certainly it will be accepted by this County so that we can proceed with this in-

Upland's downtown 'growing pains'

Old buildings in commercial areas

Fred Clark, of the County Health Department, and Earl Shafer, chief building inspector, toured North Third Avenue Friday and found Upland had growing pains.

They found, as the pictures show here, residents living in old houses located on valuable property that will eventually be a part of the downtown civic center area and new parking district. "Conditions around and in the old homes constitute a combination rubbish, trash and fire hazard," Clark said Friday, "and we will follow through with notices to have them cleaned up."

"However," he added, "although they are real eyesores of the community now, they do not make a serious disease problem."

The picture top right is of the house at 495 North Third, the corner of Arrow Highway and Third Avenue. It is in the new Civic Center protective zone, but is not scheduled for any immediate attention.

the downtown parking district and eventually, but not now, will be torn down.

The third picture at lower right is the side yard of the building at North Third and Arrow.

Lee Travers, city administrator, pointed out that the houses were caught between the commercial growth of downtown Upland spreading into residential areas.

"They are the closest we come to slums," he said, "but time will correct the situation."

The investigation was sparked by a letter to the Upland News from F. Santilla, 409 North Third Avenue, Upland.

He said: "In view of the fact that the city is trying to beautify the town, the city council and the board of health is letting the 400 block of North 3rd Avenue become a slum area. They are allowing people living in barns and etc. The board of health should condemn the buildings and clean up the area. Keep the city clean and decent."

Editorial & Opinion

Dedicated To Building A Bigger And Better Community In Which To Work, Live And Relax

An editorial --

Box score of 66-67 accomplishments

The box score of accomplishments of the Upland Chamber of Commerce during 1966-67 is impressive.

The News this week on the eve of the annual banquet doffs its hat to Outgoing President Russ Hazen, his board of directors and Manager Tony Malone for a year's "labor of love" for the good of the community.

It goes without saying it was a team effort of city officials, private citizens, and businessmen as well as the chamber. Here in a nutshell is what was done during the crucial year 1966-67, on the objectives stated by President Hazen in June, 1966.

1. The much needed civic center.

A federal grant was approved. Ground is now being cleared and prepared for the first stage of development at the new fire station headquarters at Arrow Highway and Second Street. Construction will start in the fall on both the library building at C Street and Euclid Avenue, and the fire station.

2. The revitalization of the downtown area.

Perhaps, the most meaningful accomplishment, a unique $250,000 modernization program for the downtown core cluster of businesses was presented to the business operators and to their landlords.

It was favorably received and a drive to gather the required signatures to set up an assessment district is now in its final stages. Prospects are good that downtown Upland will have its own revitalized parking and beautified area before the large new supermarket is opened in Montclair.

3. The possible annexation of adjoining areas.

The city has been successful in annexing land clustered around Cable airport in the Western area of the city as well as fill in areas from 16th Street South to Foothill Boulevard and from Benson Avenue West to the county line.

reages from 16th Street South to Foothill Boulevard and from Benson Avenue West to the county line.

4. Whether Upland shall remain a bedroom community or aggressively promote location here of desirable industry.

Progress in this area is difficult to assess due to the great amount of necessary secrecy involved in the competitive field of plant location. No public announcements have been made, but we can assume the committees are actively involved in attracting industry.

5. Steps to protect and assure the continuing of a vital asset -- Cable airport. The area has been annexed and a fine set of zoning protective standards passed for a 50-year projection.

One 5-acre parcel of land around the airport has been acquired by the city to protect the facility. Acquisition of another 5-acre tract is in the process.

This is in line with the community's effort to receive federal help in setting up a West End Recreational area, including a golf course.

A resolution was also passed by the city recommending daily flights from Cable airport to and from Los Angeles.

The News feels the chamber did not take a strong enough stand to prevent consolidation of the Upland and Ontario judicial districts. The loss in local identity of our community is considerable.

The total box score of accomplishments is impressive, perhaps the most in recent years.

Monday night the outgoing team of chamber officials can, with justifiable pride and satisfaction, pipe aboard the new officers for 1967-68.

BEHIND THE HEADLINES..

by Jack Harper

The Upland Planning Commission May 25 demonstrated an exercise in good local government.

And as I sat there in that hard press seat I wished some of our school children could have been present as well as a couple of hard-nosed federal bureaucrats.

It would have been fine lesson material for both.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Schnepf and their three children from 631 Greenfield Court, Upland, were there with a patio problem.

The family needed more room for living in their home and wanted to infringe three feet on the rear yard set back to put in their patio. Neighbors up and down the street had already violated the set back rule with building, but the Schnepf family felt they should be good citizens and ask permission for the variance.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Whitney, 805 West 16th St., Upland, were also at the meeting requesting a setback variance for a masonry wall around their spacious, historic home on one acre in that area.

The Whitneys needed privacy from increasing traffic on San Antonio Avenue.

"The house has seen a lot of living and we want to continue it that way," said George Whitney, who has lived there 50 years himself.

The Whitneys plan a drinking fountain outside their proposed fence to supply thirsty hikers and bikers who use the avenue.

Planning Consultant Simon Eisner said he couldn't recommend "in good conscience" bending of the rules for either family. He referred the decision to the City Attorney who passed it on to the Planning Commission as its responsibility.

"You might say the Schnepfs are being discriminated against by your failure to allow them the illegal privileges already assumed by their neighbors," Attorney Donald L. Marony said.

"And you might legally reason that," he continued, "because of the size and the uniqueness of the Whitney estate, it should also enjoy a special privilege."

Both requests were in clear violation of precisely worded ordinances.

Members of the commission, after due deliberation, decided to consider each request on its own merits and allowed both variances.

It was a clear example of local people dealing in local situations coming to a decision that was for the best interest of the community, although it did not agree with the ordinance.

Such decisions really are what good local government means. It could happen at town hall, but not in Washington, D. C.

I just wish there had been a bureaucrat in the audience. And maybe a civics class from the high school.

Censorship makes me mad, as it does most Americans, and especially newspaper people who firmly believe in the public right to know, their necessity to know. Because of that intense feeling about the right to speak up, every time someone starts making like a censor I bristle.

America in 1967 is loaded with people, in all walks of life, all ages, colors, and creeds who don't believe in the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

They may say they do, but if they did, they would defend others' right to speak out as much as they do their own.

One of the latest things to set me off is none other than State Senator James Whetmore's bill to prevent "selling" of communism on campuses from kindergarten through junior college.

That bill strikes a blow right at the Bill of Rights. I'm all for teaching ABOUT communism, and I'm all for selling "Americanism," which I have been doing for a long, long time, including free speech and a free press.

But Whetmore's bill would ban a junior college from having a communist speaker on campus. It would not ban George Lincoln Rockwell, American Nazi.

And it won't accomplish a thing.

I am all for letting junior colleges have any speakers they want, regardless of their religion, whether it be communism or protestantism or Republicanism. Let 'em talk.

Our college students are going to get the message anyway, sometimes subtly couched in professorial language from faculty members.

My idea is that if you let a Dorothy Healy or a Gus Hall or Herbert or Bettina Apteker stand on a platform and spout off, the students will know precisely what the commie point of view is.

Then when they hear it disguised as "democracy" or "civil rights" or "human rights" or some other euphemism, (love?) they will know that the prof's line fits right into that of Healy, Hall and Apteker. When they hear it straight from a communist, they will recognize it as communism. There won't be much "selling" when it is.

But if some kindly prof embracing the religion of "liberalism" gives them the propaganda in class, he'll do more "selling" and the students won't be so well warned as they will be when they get it from the horse's mouth.

If the Orange County legislator can ban a commie, why can't he ban someone else? You or free speaking newspaper columnists?

That's the problem with censorship of any kind. Let a censor ban one person, one book, and he'll want to extend his powers.

That's our biggest problem with stamping out pornography. First you have to define it, then find a way to control it, without stamping out everything that some individual doesn't like.

Whetmore's bill won't do any good, may do more harm, like promiscuous use of antibiotics that might kill off a disease and the patient at the same time.

I think our Junior College students can take it straight, and if any student leaves a lecture by a commie believing the stuff, he believed it when he went in. What's the difference between a 19-year-old freshman at Chaffey or Cal State?

Let's have real free speech in this country, not the type reflected in Whetmore's SB 734 and demonstrated by some college students who seem to feel that freedom is fit only for those with whom they agree, but not for Gov. Wallace of Alabama, who I feel has a right to speak although he be just as wrong as a commie.

Gen. Curtis LeMay speaks up...

Noconcession to North Vietnam

"The Vietnam war is no closer to the end than when it started -- five years and 10,000 American men ago," declared General Curtis E. LeMay, retired chief of staff of the United States Air Force at a dinner sponsored by the Riverside County Republican Central Committee May 20 at the Cochran-Odlum Ranch, Indio, California.

"I think it would be fair to say that the Viet Cong have gotten stronger, and we are the ones who are frustrated. We are fighting the war with the commodity most precious to us, and held cheaper by the enemy -- the lives of men. And toward what objective? Negotiation."

"I submit to you that we are too strong to lose the war," continued General LeMay, "but it is more than possible for us to lose the negotiation. After all, what is there to negotiate? The separation of North Vietnam and South Vietnam was established at the Geneva Convention. Any concessions to the Communists and any abridgement of freedom for the people of South Vietnam will reward the Communists for their aggression. Communist aggression must result in Communist disaster, and you won't get that at the negotiation table."

We must revise our objective, according to General LeMay, from that of negotiation to that of making the war so costly for the Communists that they will end it. To do so, he said, we must change the currency from men to material. North Vietnam's resources are so meager that they are more valuable to her, in many respects, than human life. North Vietnam must be made to pay for this war with her dearest coin.

General LeMay urged the use of America's greatest strength -- air and naval power -- to destroy the ability of the North Vietnamese to wage war and then, if necessary, to destroy their entire productive capacity.

Specifically, he named for elimination the harbor at Haiphong, the power system, the transportation system, every factory and every industrial installation, and if necessary, the irrigation system on which food production largely depends.

"We can pin-point the targets we hit, and warn the civilians in advance to evacuate," General LeMay declared.

"We should warn the population, but we should destroy the capacity of that population to slaughter innocent people for political gain. In my opinion, the Communists would seek an end to the war long before their country was destroyed. I believe that the course I suggest will end the war quicker -- with less loss of life on both sides than our present policy. I'm sure that it will cost fewer American lives, and these are my primary concern."

Entry of Red China and Russia are possibilities, General LeMay pointed out. "However," he said, "the former has internal trouble, and lacks the weapon strength to attack the U.S. The longer we delay, the stronger Red China will become, and the more likely to be provoked into direct involvement."

Soviet Russia has indicated more than once that she does not want to project herself into a showdown with the United States," he said, citing as examples Berlin, Lebanon, Taiwan Straits, and the Cuban crisis.

"The current situation in Vietnam is not a civil war or local disturbance into which we have immorally thrust ourselves, but is a clearly identifiable and well-documented act of aggression on the part of the Communists to impose their way of life on the free world by force," General LeMay continued.

"Our present strategy -- the policy of Flexible Response -- has not been successful; but on the contrary, has led the North Vietnamese to believe they can win, and has resulted in ever increasing casualties on both sides."

The only solution I see is to use our strength, our air and naval power, in the most humane manner possible to destroy North Vietnam's capability to wage war against the free people of South Vietnam.

"Like it or not, we are the leaders of the free world. We are the world's one hope to contain Communism until it destroys itself. We must not fail."

PRESENTING THE ANNUAL PROGRESS REPORT OF THE UPLAND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

WORKING TOGETHER FOR THE CITIZENS AND PROGRESSING CITY OF UPLAND
1966 — 1967

RUSSELL HAZEN
CHAMBER
PRESIDENT

OUR SERVICES

COLOR BROCHURE:

The new color brochure, an Upland "first", has proved an invaluable tool in answering many of the nearly 3000 inquiries received in the Chamber office this year, and has also aided in the recruiting of teachers and hospital personnel.

CITY MAPS:

The Chamber's new, more functional city map, issued this past winter, has already been distributed to over 4000 persons. The map is centered upon Upland proper, and is made more serviceable by a section of up-to-date information on our city.

DOWNTOWN REVITALIZATION:

Just a year ago the Chamber put the spark to downtown redevelopment with a request that the Downtown Revitalization Committee be formed. Since that time the Committee has come forward with a complete plan for the revitalization and beautification of the downtown shopping center.

COMMERCE & INDUSTRY COMMITTEE:

During the past year the Committee has published a newly-revised Standard Industrial Survey of Upland. This valuable aid to industrial and commercial development has been sent out to inquiries from all over the nation. The Committee is currently compiling an inventory of commercial and industrial land now available in Upland.

CITY PLANNING COMMITTEE:

The purpose of this committee is to study problems of special interest to businessmen and to develop recommendations for their solution.

FIREBALL 12:

The special responsibility of the Fireball 12 membership club is to contact business and professional men, to inform them of Chamber activities, and to urge them to participate. As the Chamber's achievements are only as great as its budget allows, the work of this committee is of premier importance to the Chamber's growth.

FAIR EXHIBIT:

Each year the Chamber, with the help of the Ontario-Upland Jaycees, sponsors and constructs a promotional Upland exhibit at the Los Angeles County Fair. This exhibit brings our city to the attention of the thousands who attend the fair.

UPLAND NIGHT AT DODGER STADIUM:

This year's Upland Night will be held on Friday, June 16, when the Chamber will take four busloads of Uplanders to see the Dodgers-Cincinnati Reds game. Field ceremonies honoring Upland, with the Mayor and the Chamber President, will be viewed by the thousands present at the game, and will be radio broadcast throughout Southern California.

Rabies Clinics are scheduled for this area

Low-cost public rabies clinics have been set up for the convenience of pet owners of the Upland, Montclair and Cucamonga areas in a county-wide program sponsored by the San Bernardino County Veterinarians and Department of Public Health.

This is your opportunity to protect your dog against rabies. It is required by County law to have your dog licensed every year and vaccinated against rabies every two years.

All dogs four months of age and over must be vaccinated according to Dr. Merle E. Cosand, County Health Officer, who has announced that the reduced vaccination fee at the public clinics is $2.00.

Pets can be licensed and vaccinated at the clinic rate of $5.00 for both males and females.

These clinics are sponsored by the San Bernardino County Veterinarians and the San Bernardino County Department of Public Health. The vaccine used will be effective for a two year period. Rabies is still present in neighboring counties and the wildlife population and it is most urgent that pet owners vaccinate their dogs now and keep San Bernardino County a dog-rabies-free area.

$611,771 in new facilities

Action on the acceptance of a bid for the construction of teaching facilities will top Chaffey College board agenda at its adjourned meeting, May 31.
However, trustees in session here Tuesday left little doubt that Emory Jackson of Ontario would get the job with his bid of $611,771.

The board recognized Jackson as the apparent low bidder of nine bids submitted and anticipated awarding his firm the contract when it convenes Wednesday, May 31 at 6 p.m.

The project involves erection of a forum building, a life science laboratory extension and a panatorium with funding mainly from state entitlements and community service revenues.

Dr. Harry D. Wiser, Chaffey president, believes that the new facilities will be ready for use by September of 1968. He said that ground breaking for the project will likely start within the month following confirmation of the contract.

The board approved the inclusion of a contingency participation clause in its application for a $500,000 Federal loan to finance expansion of the Chaffey campus center.

The revised application extends the period for loan redemption from 25 to 50 years with the bookstore and district sharing in its retirement. Bookstore receipts will cover most of the cost.

The board, though, will still maintain a 25-year time table to pay off the loan since there is no penalty for early retirement.

Trustees approved the appointment of Eugene G. Mitchell as an assistant professor of business education for the 1967-1968 academic year. Mitchell has been chairman of Fontana High School's business education department for the past 10 years.

The board approved also a request by Dr. Richard Beeks, life science division chairman, to serve a year on special assignment at the University of California.

Management club officers

A.E. Lambert of Chino has been elected president of the Pomona Division of General Dynamics Management Club.

Other new officers are F. D. Calkins of Walnut, vice president; L. D. Dotson of Montclair, recording secretary; M. L. Enfield of Pomona, membership secretary; L. C. Wendt of Montclair, treasurer; J. E. Perry of Pomona and B. T. Griffin of Upland, members of the board of control.

The new club officers will be installed at the June 23 meeting to be held at the Walnut Valley Country Club.

Art for cash and art too

Art for the sake of cash awards as well as art will be the name of the game at the annual Euclid Avenue exhibit in Ontario, June 3.

The show, presented by the Chaffey Art Association, will be from 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on the Euclid Avenue parkway between A and B streets.

The association announced that cash awards will be offered in six categories—oil, water colors, graphics, sculpture, pottery, and crafts.

Artists desiring to participate in the exhibit are required to pay a $1 entry fee and to provide their own easels, bases or mats. The association stipulates framed paintings.

Entries must be submitted between 9 and 10 a.m. Coordinating this year's show is Chaffey College art teacher Robert Smith assisted by colleagues Maury Rosenthal of Vina Danks Junior High School and Clark Heiple of Alta Loma High.

Santa Barbara. He will teach next year in USC's department of biological science and explore the mechanics of lecture hall instruction and the application of biological studies to the quarterly plan.

In other action, the board approved:

--The sale of two surplus airplanes, a Piper Cub to Gerald Adams for $2,050 and a Stinson to Barclay W. Long for $3,121.04.

--A $8,910 contract for parking expansion paving material and labor with Fontana Paving, Inc.

G. O. P. round-up of voters

C. Lydon Lippincott, chairman of the San Bernardino County Republican Central Committee, has announced that June 3 will be Republican registration day in the county.

This is part of a statewide drive to re-register those Republicans who did not vote in the 1966 election and to register new Republicans and Republicans newly moved into San Bernardino County.

Those eligible to vote must have lived in the state of California one year, in the county 90 days and in their precincts 54 days.

Lippincott also invited Republican volunteers to help make the registration drive a success. Those interested please call Republican Headquarters at 885-5082 or write to headquarters, 581 West 4th Street, San Bernardino, 92401.

Democratic women meet, pick officers

A group of the West End Women met recently at the Democratic Headquarters, 458 N. Euclid Avenue, Upland, for their second organizational meeting.

The Club is being organized to stimulate women in active interest in governmental affairs, to support the ideals, platform, and candidates of the Democratic Party.

The Constitution and By-Laws were discussed and passed.

Election of officers was held, nominating the following:

President, Henry Peterson of Ontario; First Vice-President, Trudi Novach of Upland; Second Vice-President, Mae Stover of Upland; Recording Secretary, Marie Zorn of Ontario; Corresponding Secretary, Pearl MacArdle of Ontario; and Treasurer, Shirley Kovalski of Ontario.

This Club will be chartered by the San Bernardino County Central Committee.

The next regular monthly meeting will be held June 27 at the Democratic Headquarters in Upland. Any ladies interested in joining the club from Ontario, Upland, Cucamonga, Alta Loma, Chino or Montclair are invited to come to the meeting. Meetings start promptly at 12 and close at 1:30. Refreshments will be served.

ANYBODY SEEN 'CINNAMON'—Dr. Edmund J. Talbott, his youngsters and neighbor friends, are pictured above combing the foothills of Old Baldy looking for a 2-year-old quarter horse, 'Cinnamon', which broke out of their Upland home and took off for the green grass two weeks ago. The doctor has offered a $100 reward for the return of the horse. Motor bike traffic last weekend and in the evenings is heavy in the area as the word has spread, Cinnamon is a white blaze-faced mare with a J. P. brand. She was spotted in the Alta Loma area near the north end of Sapphire Street. "Water is getting scarce in the mountains so I think she'll be working her way back home," Dr. Talbott said Friday. With him searching above are Katie Talbott, Krissy Talbott, Linda Berry and Kathie Luby. The Talbotts live at 2395 Park Boulevard, Upland.

JOIN THE CLUB -- Mrs. Nicholas Matusiewicz, of Upland, is being given her membership card to the Chaffey Community Republican Federated Women by Mrs. G. Morris Frost while Mrs. H. E. Jewett, General Tea Chairman, looks on. Three hundred local women attended the membership tea and silent auction held in the Armsley Square home of Mrs. Virgil Benton.

Apartment inspection is underway in Upland

Beginning this week, the owners and managers of apartment houses, motels and hotels in Upland can expect to be contacted by a representative from the San Bernardino County Health Department, according to City Manager Elwin Alder.

The purpose of this contact will be to inspect the premises to determine if minimum health and safety requirements are being met. Such an inspection is necessary prior to the issuance of a Certificate of Occupancy now required by state law.

The 1965 State Legislature amended the State Housing Code making it mandatory for all apartment houses, motels and hotels to be issued a Certificate of Occupancy. This means that all existing multiple dwelling units in Upland must now be inspected to determine their eligibility for such a Certificate.

The City Council has authorized the County Health Department to perform the necessary inspections. Inspectors will enter a dwelling unit only when accompanied by the apartment owner or manager.

An application fee of ten dollars will be required to help defray the cost of the inspection services required for the issuance of the Certificate of Occupancy.

Montclair Theatre opens

Shortly before it happened, a casual observer would have bet that it wouldn't happen on time, but Montclair Theatre is open for business at 4377 10th.

Montclair Theatre is the first new indoor theater in the Valley in 36 years, newest of the California Sterling chain, a division of Sterling Theaters of Seattle.

Separate air conditioning-heating units serve the lobby, auditorium and projection room.

Red Cross is asked to set new tradition

A commitment of new ideas meaning youth into Red Cross and Red Cross ideals into youthful members was called for by D. Robert Gordon, Associate Dean of Students at Stanford University, in an address at the annual meeting of the Southern California Inland Chapter at Redlands Country Club May 23.

"The Red Cross is not an organization of chapters and districts," he said. "It is an attitude and ideas in the minds of men."

Dr. Gordon called on the Red Cross to go beyond tradition in the coming year. The statement that tomorrow belongs to the young is a myth, Dr. Gordon said. It belongs to those adults who pass on to youth their commitment to take advantage of their opportunities.

John L. Doyle, Chapter Chairman, said that the Red Cross would ask for more money than ever before during the coming fiscal year to aid servicemen in Vietnam and their families at home.

Chapter officers reelected unanimously by the group were: John L. Doyle of Redlands, Chapter chairman; Olof E. Snyder of Upland, vice chairman; Mrs. Robert Sprague of Fontana, secretary, and Melville D. Harris of San Bernardino, treasurer.

Membership in Yeomen indicates academic and service leadership and is awarded to a select number of freshmen at the close of each year.

The Yeomen serve as official hosts of the University, assisting throughout the year with visiting groups, special events and other activities involving the campus community.

stallation as quickly as possible.

I can only assure you that we are ready to move ahead as soon as the necessary acquisition has been accomplished, and the State has approved the project and design.

It is my understanding that the plans will have been completed on the new alignment within three weeks and the entire package forwarded to Sacramento for approval and funding. It would seem then that a call for bids and construction could take place within the next four or five months.

I sincerely hope this will help to answer your questions concerning this very difficult problem, and I trust the entire matter will be resolved at an extremely early date.

Sincerely yours,
DANIEL D. MIKESSELL,

Three arts program at cultural center

The Chaffey Community Art Association presents a three arts program on June 10, at 8 p.m., at the Chaffey Communities Cultural Center, 18th Street, Upland.

Participating will be the Garrick Players, the West End Symphony Assn., the Opera Assn., with an exhibit of paintings to be hung by the art group. Coordinating the program will be Mrs. Clark Heiple.

A drama student from the University of Redlands, Mrs. Heiple has produced and directed several one act plays for the Garrick Players.

"We have chosen a one act comedy for the evening of June 10," she said. "The title is 'Here We Are' and concerns a honeymoon."

Mariou Dobrick plays the heroine and the male lead is taken by Jim Beekman, a police science major at Chaffey College. A former Miss Ontario Airport, Miss Dobrick has taken part in many Chaffey College presentations. Both are active performers with the Garrick Players.

A string ensemble and flutist will be the contribution of the West End Symphony, under the direction of Fred Graff, assistant conductor.

The first selection will be "Suite in A Minor for Flute and String Orchestra" by George Philip Teleman.

Mary Moffatt will be flute soloist.

Violins will be Ward Allen, Winfield Angel, Daniel Brommage, Lois Butcher, Clara Edgar, Don Hancock, Frances Mitchell, Hollis Moore, Mary Pruitt and Mark Saunderson; violas, Harriett Guse and Jean Underwood; cellos, Glenn Fisher, Marilyn Friedrichmeyer, Flo Rice and Jackson Wilson; string basses, Peter Casanova and David Davis.

The Opera Association will present the duet, which comprises a large part of the second act of La Traviata. Singing the parts will be Donald Bowers and Marietta Walker, and will be accompanied by Mrs. Sheila Anchondo.

The Opera Association, organized in the fall of 1965 with the purpose of bringing opera on a professional and semi-professional basis to the community, is credited with two successful seasons.

Under the professional direction of Stephan Petroff, son of a Metropolitan opera singer, the Association has developed and established itself as one of the leading cultural groups of the Chaffey area. Its purpose is to entertain and delight according to the highest professional standards.

For many years the Chaffey Art Association has bought the works of renowned artists throughout the United States and at present owns a valuable collection of paintings. It is from this collection that the exhibit will be chosen, which will hang in the museum on the night of June 10. In charge of the exhibit is Stanley Book, president of the Association.

To conclude the evening, refreshments a la fresco will be served by members of the Museum staff under the direction of Mrs. Beatrice Riggs.

Assisting her as hostesses are Mesdames: Robert C. Ring, Kenneth B. Powell, Howard Clark and Warren Wass.

TOP TROUBLE SHOOTERS -- Chaffey College led the field for junior colleges when its two-man team captured first place by a 20-minute margin in a Southern California trouble-shooting contest. Team members are Pat Coyle, left, and Ted LaRue, right. In the center is their automotive technology instructor Sam Contino. The team won over 13 other junior colleges.

Richard A. Nolting, 20, son of Mrs. Gertrude Nolting, 636 Geoffrey Lane, University City, Mo., was promoted to Army private first class April 20 while serving with the 2nd Armored Cavalry Regiment in Germany.

Members of the West End Symphony League are now eagerly awaiting their annual Membership Tea, which will be held on Friday, June 2, from 2-4 p.m., at the hillside home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hyde, 1038 Terrace Drive, San Antonio Heights, Upland.

The League will have as its honored guests Mr. Robert Cole, recently appointed permanent conductor of the West End Symphony Orchestra, and Mrs. Cole.

They will help receive the guests along with the President of the League, Mrs. Henry Lucas; the incoming president of the West End Symphony Association, Mrs. Mary Graber Boyd; League First Vice-President, Mrs. Barry Brandt; and Second Vice-President, Mrs. Sam Luginsky. Mrs. Francis Fehlman will be in charge of the guest book.

and Ronald Rossitter.

A highlight of the afternoon will be the performance of lovely background music by a quartet of musicians from the West End Symphony Orchestra including Lois Butcher, violinist; Mary Pruitt, violinist; Jean Underwood, violist; and Elaine Goss, cellist.

The main purpose of the League is to provide financial support for the West End Symphony Orchestra and finance an annual music lesson scholarship for elementary grade students.

Those interested in becoming new members may make reservations for the tea and get further information from Mrs. Francis Fehlman, 904 W. Granada Court, Ontario, 984-4525.

Mission reports to highlight meeting

A report from two mission fields will highlight the luncheon meeting of the Upland First Presbyterian Church Women's Association on Thursday, June 1.

Mrs. Harvey Shirk, president, will preside.

A program of the mission fields of Brazil and Mexico will be presented by Mrs. Homer Grimes, the wife of a retired Baptist minister. Her topic will be "I Being in the Way, The Lord Led Me."

She will tell of the work in Brazil of her daughter, Becky Dodson, who with her husband, Rev. Robert Dodson, are church-related workers there.

Mrs. Grimes' son, Joe Grimes, is working with the Huichol Indian tribe in Mexico in bible translation work. He is the inventor of the language computer being used with the Wycliffe translation of the bible.

Both Mr. Grimes and his wife teach at the Institute of Linguistics at the University of Oklahoma each summer, and he will serve as Professor of Linguistics at Cornell University starting in September.

A special medical offering will be accepted and dedicated at this meeting. Rev. C. Richard Mitchell will lead the bible study in the Choir Room at 11:00 a.m.

Luncheon will be served by Circle 3-4.

Novell to receive Claremont degree

Robert E. Novell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Novell, 1784 First Avenue, Upland, is a candidate for the Bachelor of Arts degree Claremont Men's College which will hold its 20th Annual Commencement Sunday, June 11. Speaker will be Sen. Charles Percy (R., Ill.).

Claremont Men's College, the intermediate-size college of the six Claremont Colleges, offers its students a broad liberal arts curriculum, with special emphasis in public affairs. Over two-thirds of this year's graduating class plan to go on to graduate study.

A graduate of Upland High School, Novell majored in mathematics and economic theory at CMC.

His senior thesis was entitled "The Use of Management Games." Activities at CMC include being dorm officer, varsity tennis, and intramural basketball, football and baseball. He has been on the dean's list.

In July, Novell will enter the Transportation Corps of the U.S. Army, then plans to continue his education.

Uplanders will soon be able to view pictures of most of the Mayors of the City throughout its history. S. Lee Travers, director of administrative services, said today.

Pictures of the majority of the Mayors since Upland's incorporation have been acquired and will soon be on permanent display in the Upland City Council Chambers, but prolonged search has failed to reveal any pictures of the following gentlemen who served as Mayor during the time indicated:

Charles Ruedy, 1906; R. T. Nelson, 1908; C. V. Lambrigger, 1912; T. R. Woodbridge, 1914; Charles E. Grier, 1916; Arthur H. Johnson, 1913, 20, 24, 26; Frank C. Buffington, 1922.

Anyone having pictures of these past Mayors is requested to loan them to the City of Upland so that reproduction can be made and the faces of these gentlemen may join those of their compatriots.

If you have a picture of any of the missing Mayors, please call Lee Travers, Director of Administrative Services, Upland City Hall, 982-1352.

Study session to explore long range zoning

Local life insurance salesmen who have attained membership in the 1967 Million Dollar Round Table, the life insurance industry's international organization of top salesmen, are L. G. Engle, Provident Life & Accident, Upland; and Philip J. Reifel, Jr., New York Life, Ontario.

To be a member, a person must have written one million dollars of new life insurance, paid for in 1966 in accordance with the strict rules of the organization.

A Joint City Council-Planning Commission study session to explore long range changes in Upland's master plan including rezoning of both sides of Mountain Avenue between 16th and 20th Streets will be held in June.

"It will not be a public hearing," Maynard Book, chairman of the Planning Commission, said at the May 25 commission meeting.

"It will merely be an exchange of ideas so that planners can get the thinking of council members. The public will be invited to sit and listen, but private citizens will not be heard until later during a public hearing."

Book pointed out council members requested the study session. It will be held either June 13 or 27, on a Tuesday night in the city council chambers.

The commission Thursday turned down a conditional use permit to allow the establishment of a Montessori Private School for gifted children from two to 13 years at the Southwest corner of Euclid Avenue and 16th Street.

It allowed a variance for George H. Whitney to construct a six foot masonry wall around one of Upland's most historic homes at 805 West 16th Street at San Antonio Avenue.

It also approved a variance for the extension of a patio into the rear yard set back at 631 Greenfield Court, Upland, and passed an amendment to the municipal code allowing outdoor commercial recreation establishments in commercial 3 and 4 zones by use permit.

Residents of Claremont, Pomona, Riverside and Arcadia appeared before the commission to speak for the Montessori school. They urged the use permit be allowed in centrally located Upland so their children would not have to travel the distance to Arcadia where a similar school is operated now.

Marilyn May Cutler, the applicant who is director of the Arcadia school, said the private educational institution would upgrade property values in Upland and bring new residents to the city.

"Our school attracts a high calibre of family," she said. "They are fine people interested in giving their children an exceptional education. Our tuition compares to most private colleges."

She said locating of the unique school in Upland would bring national and international publicity and that Upland was chosen for its central location and its culture.

One Claremont grandmother said Montessori schools were the answer to juvenile delinquency and that Holland had adopted the method of teaching into its public school system.

Mrs. Joyce Knight, of Riverside, said she knew families in that city who would be delighted to bring their children to Upland to attend the school.

Two letters received by the commission favored a use permit for the school and one was opposed.

The opposition came from property owners in the neighborhood.

They didn't oppose the school, but felt a commercial venture should not be allowed in a residential zone neighborhood.

"We have to consider this on the basis of neighborhood zoning only," said Commissioner Frank Carpenter, "and not on the worth of the school."

"Do we want a commercial venture in a residential neighborhood?" he asked.

Carpenter moved to deny the use permit and it passed.

The applicant indicated she would appeal the decision to the city council.

"Our old place has seen a lot of living and we want to keep it that way," George Whitney told the commission in requesting permission to construct a wall within the front yard setback at 16th Street and San Antonio Avenue.

The home, designed by noted Architect Myron Hunt in the 1920's has been the setting of early California movies and was featured in a 1931 edition of Good House-keeping magazine.

The Whitneys plan to install a drinking fountain outside the fence for bike riders and hikers who go up San Antonio.

The wall, designed for privacy is of a style in keeping with the historical home.

"What Mr. Whitney is doing is excellent," said Member Vern Murray. "The design catches the spirit of the community and I am for it."

The variance was allowed on the basis of the unusual size of the home and one acre of land it occupies.

In passing the amendment to the municipal code allowing outdoor commercial recreation uses the commission said it did not mean a Super-slide would be allowed on Foothill Avenue.

A request for such a commercial venture was made at a previous meeting. It was denied at that time on the grounds outdoor commercial recreation uses just was not allowed under the code.

"All the amendment means," said Chairman Book, "is that the commission will consider each request for such usage on its own merits and can, if it desires, legally allow it."

In other action the commission gave permission to Donald F. Avery to move a dwelling from 636 North Euclid Avenue to 1263 Veterans Court, Upland.

Car team to be honored

Chaffey College's champion two-man automobile trouble-shooting team will be honored at an awards banquet at Roger Young Auditorium, Los Angeles, June 2.

Team mates Pat Coyle, Upland, and Ted LaRue, Alta Loma, swept the field for Chaffey in competition with 13 other junior colleges, May 17, at Huntington Park High School. The annual contest is sponsored by Plymouth.

With automotive technology instructor Sam Contino as coach, the Chaffey team beat second-place Pasadena City College by 20 minutes. Antelope Valley College was third.

The victory marked Chaffey's first participation in the contest and Contino's first anniversary as an instructor here.

VICTORVILLE -- It's roundup time for rodeo queen contenders!

Horseman must match beauty, for they'll be judged equally at the first evening's grandstand show, here at the 20th annual San Bernardino County Fair Aug. 30-Sept. 4.

They'll ride in the arena, then appear on stage, where last year's queen, Judy Gage of Bloomington, will crown the winner -- who'll get $100 cash and a trophy. Two princesses will win western shirts and trophies.

They'll ride in the giant Sept. 2 parade and in the grand entry of the State Championships Rodeo Sept. 1-2-3. They'll also appear at a host of public functions.

Any bonafide group may sponsor one or more girls, simply by posting the $10 entry fee, according to fair director Robert W. Angel. Entries close July 15. Girls will meet each other, learn more about the rules and pose for publicity photos on July 23.

The contest is open to any county girl who is at least 16 and not over 21 on July 15. She'll provide her own horse. Entries should be directed to "Rodeo Queen Contest, P.O. Box 820, Victorville, Calif. 92392."

we care

what every new bride should know!

Let's see!

His shirts... starch or no starch?

His eggs... sunnyside up or over lightly?

His coffee... a bit on the strong side?

His steak... medium-rare or rare-rare?

His favorite pie... apple or cherry?

Knowing these things is important.

Knowing this is important, too: A&P is a store you can trust.

Brides have been doing it for over a century.

As a matter of fact, nobody has ever had more brides walk down their aisle than A&P.

We think it's important for brides,

new or old, to find a store they can trust, to know that everything they buy is totally guaranteed.

That's A&P Policy.

No matter who makes it, if A&P sells it, A&P guarantees it.

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.
